The Friends of the Goldstein Museum of Design
Invite you to a Collection Close-up exploring the Intersections Between Art and Fashion

Thursday, October 22nd
22 McNeal Hall
1985 Buford Avenue, St. Paul, MN
6:30–8:00 pm
Members $25, Guests $35, Students $10

RSVP by October 18th to Linda, herso004@umn.edu or 612.730.6751
Prepayment is appreciated:
Cash, Checks, CC: AE, Visa, MC
Mail checks to: Linda Hersom,
23250 Oakdale Drive, Rogers MN 55374

Dr. Jean McElvain, Goldstein Museum Assistant Curator, will speak on the power of floral patterns in apparel and accessories and Professor Roslye Ultan, Faculty MLS (Masters of Liberal Studies Program), will focus on the legacy of art into fashion in mid-20th century pop art.

Join us for a reception following the presentation with sweets from Beyond Chocolates.

The Goldstein Museum of Design will be open until 8:30 pm featuring the exhibit Intersections: Where art meets fashion.

ph: 612.624.7434  http://goldstein.design.umn.edu